

Catalyst Health Technologies

Healthcare IT Consulting for Enterprise Transformation

Catalyst Health Technologies helps providers, payers, and healthcare organizations deliver successful technology implementations, PMO leadership, cloud modernization, and digital transformation initiatives.

|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Core Capabilities | Healthcare IT consulting; Epic and Oracle Health migration support; PMO leadership; software implementation; systems integration; UAT and go-live support; cloud modernization; operational improvement. |
| Engagement Models | Fixed-price consulting; time and materials; project-based delivery; fractional PMO; strategic advisory; staff augmentation support.                                                                      |
| Industries Served | Health systems; hospitals; clinics and provider groups; health plans; government healthcare; digital health companies.                                                                                   |
| Credentials       | PMP-certified leadership; AWS Cloud Practitioner; software engineering background; healthcare operations and enterprise delivery experience.                                                             |

Representative Use Cases

Enterprise implementation planning; EHR migration governance; PMO setup and rescue support; executive reporting; vendor coordination; testing and go-live readiness; healthcare workflow optimization; cloud and digital transformation roadmap support.

Why Catalyst

Experienced healthcare technology consultants, enterprise project leadership, vendor-neutral guidance, flexible engagement models, remote and onsite delivery, and U.S.-based consulting from Arizona serving clients nationwide.

|                                                                  |                                                          |                                                        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| Business Developmentcontracts@catalysthealthtechnologies.com | General Inquiriesinfo@catalysthealthtechnologies.com | LocationArizona, USAServing clients nationwide |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|